MOREHEAD'S MAGNETIC PLASTER THE GREAT.

Morehead's Magnetic Plaster is the world. Put up in air tight tin boxes. Each box will make from six to eight plasters, and any child may apply them.

Price 25 cents a box.

FAIN CANNOT ENIST WHERE THIS PLASTER IS APPLIED.

It is a great strengthening plaster, giving tone to all the organs, and invigorating the entire system. It is a great absorbent plaster, causing copious perspiration, which thus enables the innumerable pores of the body to absorb its virtues, while it extracts all pain. It is a great nervine plaster, owing to the wondrous virtues of the magnetic influence it possesses, and, therefore, it is of surpussing value in all nervous diseases. In short, it strengthens and vitalizes the whole system—equalizes the circulation of the blood—promotes the secretion—and restores health and vigor to the siek and debilitated. The Magnetic Plaster is the cheapest and most valuable remedy.

EVER GIVEN TO THE WORLD:

and in all the complaints and diseases for which it is recommended, its worth is inestimable, and its

PRICE ALMOST NOTHING!

Let the remembered that pain cannot exist where this plaster is applied.

It is exceedinally pleasant and agreeable in its use, and is free from all those objections attached to the generality of plasters. It is warranted to maintain its virtues for years, and to keep unimpaired in any climate.

The Markied Woman's Private Medical Companion—By Dr. A. M. Mauricean, Professor of Diseases of Women—Twentieth edition, Ismo., pp. 250—Price, $1.—Years of suffering, of physical and mensual anguish to many an affectionate wife, and poeuniary difficulties to the harband, might have been apared by a timely possession of this work. It is intended especially for the married, or those contemplating marriage, as it discloses important secrets, which should be known to them particularly.

To those whose health does not permic of an increase of family, it is of special importance.

Here, also, every female—the wife—the mother—the one either budding into womanhood, or the other in the decline of years—in whom nature contemplates an important change, can discover the causes, symptoms, and the most efficient remedies, and most certain mode of cure, in every complaint to which here sex is subject.

Av Dran Sir—My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great anaxisis and suffering some months before and duringher continuent—every successive one more and more debificating for some three years or more, in consequence of her great anaxisis and suffering some months before and duringher continuent—every successive one more and more debificating and prostrating her, patting her life in imminent danger, and which was, on the last occasion, despared of, I supposed this state of thisgs was inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the worst. At this time (now about two months) I heard your book highly spoken of, as containing some matters reaching my case. On its receipt and perusal, I cannot express to you the relief its afforded my differested mind, and the joy its pages imparted to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. Desomenaux provided a remedy. Is opened a prospect to me, which I little conceived was possible. But for this, ere another year would have passed over m

JUST PUBLISHED.—DR. B. DE LANEY, ON THE RAdional treatment of nervous and constitutional debility, giving the only true and effectual treatment of those deplerable infirmities and disorders of youth and maturity, produced by delisivehabits and excesses, appearing in the form of local weakness, exhaustion of muscular energy, loss of mental and physical capacity, &c. This pamphlet is addressed to the sufferer in youth, manbood, and old age, and is wholly different from the many quack publications advertised in the public papers, pointing out to suffering humanity a certain and very cheap remedy for these complaints, and avoiding every word which unnecessarily could frighten, instead of instructing, the unfortunate. If it has sol other merit, it at least has the merit of being candid, and of giving the means for a perfect and secret restoration of vigorous health. To those contemplating marriage is for the highest importance. By addressing, post-paid, bex 108 Broadway Post Office, New York, a copy will be sent, in a realed envelope, to any address in any part of the Vnios, gratuitonsly. The Doctor's private consultation hours are
